- 1a. Give: (1) the genealogy, including public and commercial varieties, lines, or clones used, and the breeding method; (2) the details of subsequent stages of selection and multiplication; (3) evidence of uniformity and stability; and (4) the type and frequency of variants during reproduction and multiplication and state how these variants may be identified
- 1b. Give a summary of the variety's distinctness. Clearly state how this application variety may be distinguished from all other varieties in the same crop. If the new variety is most similar to one variety or a group of related varieties:
- (1) identify these varieties and state all differences objectively;
 - (2) attach statistical data for characters expressed numerically and demonstrate that these are clear differences; and
 - (3) submit, if helpful, seed and plant specimens or photographs (prints) of seed and plant comparisons which clearly indicate distinctness.
- 1c. Exhibit C forms are available from the PVPO Office for most crops; specify crop kind. Fill in Exhibit C (Objective Description of Variety) form as completely as possible to describe your variety.
- 1d. Optional additional characteristics and/or photographs. Describe any additional characteristics that cannot be accurately conveyed in Exhibit C. Use comparative varieties as is necessary to reveal more accurately the characteristics that are difficult to describe, such as plant habit, plant color, disease resistance, etc.
- 1e. Section 52(5) of the Act requires applicants to furnish a statement of the basis of the applicant's ownership. An Exhibit E form is available from the PVPO.
- 1f. If "Yes" is specified (seed of this variety be sold by variety name only, as a class of certified seed), the applicant MAY NOT reverse this affirmative decision after the variety has been sold and so labeled, the decision published, or the certificate issued. However, if "No" has been specified, the applicant may change the choice. (See Regulations and Rules of Practice, Section 97.103).
- 1g. See Sections 41, 42, and 43 of the Act and Section 97.5 of the regulations for eligibility requirements.
- 1h. See Section 55 of the Act for instructions on claiming the benefit of an earlier filing date.

1. CONTINUED FROM FRONT (Please provide a statement as to the limitation and sequence of generations that may be certified.)

2. CONTINUED FROM FRONT (Please provide the date of first sale, disposition, transfer, or use for each country and the circumstances, if the variety including any harvested material) or a hybrid produced from this variety has been sold, disposed of, transferred, or used in the U.S. or other countries.)

3. CONTINUED FROM FRONT (Please give the country, date of filing or issuance, and assigned reference number, if the variety or any component of the variety is protected by intellectual property right (Plant Breeder's Right or Patent).)

NOTES: It is the responsibility of the applicant/owner to keep the PVPO informed of any changes of address or change of ownership or assignment or owner's representative during the life of the application/certificate. There is no charge for filing a change of address. The fee for filing a change of ownership or assignment or any modification of owner's name is specified in Section 97.175 of the regulations. (See Section 101 of the Act, and Sections 97.130, 97.131, 97.175(h) of the Regulations and Rules of Practice.)

To avoid conflict with other variety names in use, the applicant must check the appropriate recognized authority. ‘ALAMO’
Durum Wheat

18.a.Exhibit A. Origin and Breeding History

‘Alamo’, (Experimental designation ‘YU895-24’) is a spring durum wheat that originated from the cross of ‘Kofa’/‘PH888-118-5’, made near Maricopa, AZ in March 1993. The breeding selection method was single-head descent modified pedigree. The line ‘PH888-118-5’ was a F₅ selection with the pedigree ‘Turbo alpha-86 S-1’. ‘Turbo alpha-86 S-1’ was generated by crossing ‘WestBred Turbo’ onto male sterile F₂ plants in a population designated ‘SDP-85’. ‘SDP-85’ was generated by crossing ‘Mexicali’, ‘Aldura’, ‘WestBred 881’, ‘Imperial’, ‘Lloyd’, ‘WestBred Laker’, ‘Mallard ‘S’’, ‘Swan’S’’, ‘Kingfisher’, ‘PH883-2’, ‘PH884-11’ and ‘PH884-2’ onto male sterile F₂ plants derived from the cross of a male sterile plant in ‘Mexicali’ with a normal ‘Mexicali’ plant. The crosses were bulked together to grow the F₁ increase. The male sterile plant in ‘Mexicali’ was induced by Western Plant Breeders through the use of a chemical mutagenic agent. The F₁ increase from which Alamo originated was grown in the field near Bozeman, MT in 1993 and the F₂ seed was harvested in September. The F₂ generation was grown near Maricopa, AZ in 1994. Individual spikes were selected and bulked together to grow the F₃ population near Bozeman, MT in 1994. Individual spikes were selected and grown as F₄ spike rows near Maricopa, AZ in 1995. The final selection was made in May 1995 in the F₄ row and was increased near Bozeman, MT in the summer of 1995. The resulting F₅ plot was designated ‘YU895-24’ and harvested in bulk. Analysis of percent protein, protein quality (SDS Sedimentation test), semolina color and test weight were conducted prior to advancing ‘YU895-24’ to yield trials. The F₆ through F₁₀ were yield tested in Arizona and/or California from 1996 through 2000 in Western Plant Breeders’ trials. ‘Alamo’ was selected for good pasta making characteristics (See Table 2) such as high protein, good semolina color, high SDS sedimentation values, as well as for acceptable agronomic traits. (See Table 1) Agronomic traits evaluated include grain yield, plant height, disease resistance, test weight, heading date and lodging tolerance.

Ninety six spikes were selected from F₈ plots at Yuma, AZ in 1998 and grown as spike rows near Bozeman, MT in 1998. Sixty spike row plots were grow at Brawley, CA. in 1999. Thirty identical and uniform spike row plots were selected and bulked together. This seed was used to seed 5 acres near Bozeman, MT in 1999. This production was harvested in September and designated “Breeder” seed. This seed was used to plant approximately 80 acres near Yuma, AZ in the fall of 1999. The production was harvested in the June of 2000 and designated ‘Foundation’ and ‘Registered’ seed. Registered seed was down graded to Certified and was first offered for sale on December 4 of 2000.

'ALAMO'

A variant that is similar to 'Alamo' but is 15 to 30 centimeters taller, occurs at a frequency of up to .1% (10 per 10,000). A black awn variant occurs at a frequency of up to .5% (50 per 10,000). Otherwise 'Alamo' is a stable and uniform variety in appearance and performance across several generations (F7-F10) and growing conditions.

18.b. Exhibit B. Statement of Distinctness

'Alamo' is most similar to the variety 'WestBred 881', however, 'Alamo' has yellow anthers while 'WestBred 881' has purple anthers. Also, 'Alamo' has white auricles while those of 'WestBred 881' are red.

The above comparison, along with the complete Objective Description (Exhibit C) shows Alamo to be a novel variety of durum wheat.
